FIRE TRUCK BOND ISSUE SOLD TODAY

Awarded to City Trust Company of Indianapolis, Which is Slightly Higher Than Local Bank

STARTED LAST FEBRUARY

Truck Ready For Delivery as Soon as Money is Received—Balance to Extend Water Lines

The city bond issue for $14,400 was sold this morning at a special meeting of the city council, to the City Trust Company of Indianapolis, for a premium of $152.20.

The next bid was that of the Rushville National bank for a premium of $150.50. Two other bids were submitted, with the Meyer-Kiser bank of Indianapolis offering $145.25 bid and the Fletcher American Company offering $135.40.

The City Trust Company was the highest bidder, and nosed out the local bank by only $1.70. The transcript of the proceedings will be made up at once and sent to the successful bidder so that the money can be received in a short time.

The successful bidder was also the bank that received the award on the issue a few months ago, when they had the highest bid, but turned it down because of a faulty proceeding. It was then necessary to advertise the bond issue again, and after some delay the proceedings were started again, and it is believed now that the transcript will pass without any difficulty.

The purpose of the bond issue is to make payment on a fire truck that is bought, and which will be delivered as soon as the money has been received. The truck will cost $13,000 and the balance of the bond issue is to make necessary improvements in a water line to the business district.

The bond issue was originally started in February of this year, when an attempt was made to raise $30,000 for the fire equipment, repair of the city building and the water line extension, but the city building repair plan was blocked by remonstrators, and the tax board cut the bond issue to $14,500.

When the $14,500 bond issue failed to sell on account of the proceedings, the matter was taken up with the tax board and the public service commission for a still further approval of the issue, and these bodies issued orders granting the bond issue, and in order to make the period of time come out right, the order was again reduced to $14,400 which was the amount bid on today.

ILLNESS AGGRAVATED BY EATING CANNED FOOD

Mrs. Charlotte Cox's Sudden Death at Anderson Attributed Partly to Canned Tomatoes

IN POOR HEALTH RECENTLY

According to further details received here, Mrs. Charlotte Cox, aged 64 years, who died suddenly Thursday morning at her home in Anderson, had been in poor health for the last few weeks, but had not been compelled to remain in bed. She had undergone an x-ray examination that disclosed the presence of tumors.

The deceased took suddenly ill Thursday morning and when the doctor arrived it was disclosed that she had eaten some canned tomatoes Wednesday night, and the physician expressed the opinion that the vegetables might have poisoned her, aggravating her illness. Mrs. Cox lived only a few hours after the sudden attack.

Mrs. Cox was the widow of the late Lem Cox, who was employed by the Union Traction Company in Anderson for many years. The family lived there for a long period, until fifteen years ago, when they moved to this city where Mr. Cox was employed by the I. & C. Traction Co. About six months ago Mrs. Cox moved from West Third street, this city, to Anderson. She is survived by three children, Otis Cox, of Anderson; Claude Cox, of Chicago; Mrs. Zelma Osborne, of Louisville, Ky., and two brothers, Hayward Scott and Miles Scott, Pendleton; and a sister, Mrs. Roy Welsh.

DR. SWEET OF DEPAUW TO GIVE CENTENNIAL SERMON

Author of Many Books Dealing With Pioneer Methodism Will Speak at St. Paul's Church Sunday

SERMON ALSO BY J. W. TURNER

On Sunday St. Paul's church will celebrate its one hundredth birthday. This will be the special feature at every service during the day. The Centennial sermon in the morning will be delivered by Dr. William Warren Sweet of DePauw University. Dr. Sweet is one of the ablest men in the state or nation for an occasion of this kind. He is the author of many books dealing with the early pioneer days of Methodism. He is the author of "Circuit Rider Days in Indiana," "Circuit Rider Days Along the Ohio," "Our American Churches," "Methodism in the West" and many other interesting books.

He recently preached the sermon at the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of Vincennes. He had charge of the centennial services at Greencastle and at other places. His father was the honored president of Baker University and was a descendant from John Rolfe and Pocahontas. Dr. Sweet's topic will be "Methodism of the Past."

In the afternoon the very gifted preacher, Dr. J. W. Turner, will deliver the sermon. This service will be held at three o'clock that the members of all the other churches in the city may have the privilege of attending at least one of the centennial services.

In the evening the choir will give a musical program under the direction of Prof. D. S. McIntosh. The old time hymns will be sung and Judge Sparks will deliver the Centennial address.

THE EIGHTH WONDER OF THE WORLD

"SIMON LEGRE" JURORS BARRED BY THE DEFENSE

Attorney For L. M. Hight and Mrs. Sweetin Objects to Men With Drooping Moustaches in Box

COURT RECESS UNTIL MONDAY

(By United Press)
Mount Vernon, Ill., Dec. 5.—"Simon Legree" jurors, those with drooping moustaches, are being barred as the state and defense wrangle over the jurors who will hear the testimony against Lawrence M. Hight and Mrs. Elsie Sweetin, charged with the murder of Wilford Sweetin.

"I won't have any of those Simon Legree type jurors try my client. Those men with the long drooping moustaches will convict every time," R. E. Smith, one of the defense attorneys said.

So far eight jurors have been selected. A night session of the circuit court was held last night in an attempt to complete the list and grant a recess until Monday. Taking of testimony will not be started until then.

Of the eight selected seven are farmers from near Ima, and the other is a mechanic.

Court was recessed until Monday morning after nine jurors had been selected. About 100 veniremen have been examined and indications are that a new jury panel will be called before the jury is completed.

Although both Hight and Mrs. Sweetin appeared nervous after the tedious ordeal of selecting jurors, neither would talk much today. Mrs. Sweetin still speaks of a "divine providence" directing the trial which will aid the jurors in finding an acquittal verdict for her.

CHARGES MAY NOT BE PRESSED

Wabash Students Give Bond and Will Settle for Damage Done

Greencastle, Ind., Dec. 5.—After entering appeals in the Putnam county court on an indictment charging them with malicious trespassing, twenty Wabash college students, today were released on $500 bond each pending trial.

Judge James P. Hughes set the trial date for December 18. In the meantime it is understood that the students will settle with DePauw University officials for the damage done in painting buildings on the DePauw campus on the night before the Wabash-DePauw football game this season.

The charge against the students will probably not be pressed if the settlement is made.

The purchase of $25.00 Health Bonds by two local banks helped swell the total in the Christmas Seal and bond campaign today.

The Rushville National and the American National each took a bond of this size, according to today's report. The Rush County National was included among the purchasers announced Thursday, having invested $25.00 also, in the movement designed to eradicate tuberculosis.

Those who put their money in Christmas Seals and Health Bonds will have an opportunity to see it at work, because a large percent of the proceeds goes to the support of the visiting nurse, and is also used to pay the expenses of clinics for the purpose of discovering tuberculosis in its early stages.

The local tuberculosis association has received a letter from State Senator C. O. Holmes of Gary, president of the Indiana association, in which he emphasizes the constantly decreasing death rate from the disease in Indiana and pointed to the record of organized tuberculosis work in the state for the past dozen years. He said that if citizens of the state responded to the 1924 Seal (Continued on Page Six)

REMODELING PLANS FOR SCHOOL DELAYED

City School Board Meets Today, But Finds it Necessary to Wait on Insurance Adjusters

VACANCY IS CONSIDERED

The city school board held their regular session this morning, and expected to make plans for the remodeling of the Washington school for colored children, which was damaged by fire Monday morning, but nothing definite was done.

The school board is waiting on the insurance adjusters to make the settlement, so that they can then know how much money can be spent on the repairs. It was expected that the report would be ready for this morning, but it will be necessary for a special meeting of the school board later to make the remodeling plans.

The session this morning also took up the vacancy made in the high school faculty by the recent resignation of Marietta Sicer, physical education teacher, and also instructor in a class for beginners in French. No one was employed, although it is understood that several applicants are under consideration for the place.

The usual payment of the claims and bills was made.

Case of Elizabeth Archey Against Walter Mansfield on Trial in Circuit Court

NO CASES SET FOR SATURDAY

A complaint on a note, in which Elizabeth Archey is plaintiff and Walter S. Mansfield defendant, was being heard today in the circuit court before Judge Sparks. The case was expected to occupy nearly all day for trial, with the arguments being heard this afternoon.

The plaintiff was seeking judgment for $2,500 on a note, which she alleged to be past due. The parties are residents of Milroy. It was expected that no decision would be entered in the case today.

There are no cases set for trial Saturday, and only a few minor court issues are expected to come up.

A complaint to foreclose a chattel mortgage has been filed in the circuit court by Walter E. Smith against George Solomon.

REFORMATORY SYSTEM OF STATE IS RAPPED

Criticized by Judge Anderson When Former Inmates Appear in Federal Court

POSTAL ROBBERS SENTENCED

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 5.—The state reformatory system was rapped repeatedly by Judge A. B. Anderson in federal court today as young men who had been released from state schools came before him for arraignment on other law violations.

Fifty seven persons indicted at the November session of the federal grand jury were before Anderson for arraignment. Forty one pleaded guilty and twelve not guilty.

"I want to keep track of all these young men who have been 'reformed' over night and who come up here for law violations," Judge Anderson said as Robert Wilson, 19 of Dayton, Ohio, pleaded guilty to robbing the post-office at Underwood.

"I will give you three years and then we will know where you are," Judge Anderson told Wilson.

Eugene Goff, of Clifty, pleaded guilty to robbing the postoffice there and was given two years imprisonment.

Fred Steffler, 22, and Walter Jensen, 22, pleaded guilty to robbing the postoffice at Willow Branch and were given four years each.

COOLIDGE SPEEDING BACK TO HIS DESK

Makes Two Speeches and Inspects Livestock Exposition During 13 Hours in Chicago

CUT PRODUCTION, HIS ADVICE

Most of Ills of Agriculture Come From Over-Production, President Tells Farmers

By DALE VANEVRY
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Enroute With President Coolidge, Garrett, Ind., Dec. 5.—President Coolidge was speeding back to Washington today after a strenuous 13 hours in Chicago during which he made two speeches and inspected the International Livestock Exposition.

It was Mr. Coolidge's first visit to the west since he became president and his first speech to a mid-western audience since he entered the White House.

While both his speeches were devoted largely to agricultural interests, Mr. Coolidge, without mentioning the League of Nations or the World Court urged a world wide co-operation for peace and predicted a wave of prosperity for the coming year.

The president will reach Washington at 8 p. m. today. His route will take him through Akron and Youngstown Ohio, Connellsville Pa., and Cumberland, Md.

Chicago, Dec. 5.—Reduce production was the advice President Coolidge gave to farmers in a speech here last night at the International Livestock Exposition.

Most of the ills of agriculture come from over-production, Mr. Coolidge declared, and not from the failure of the government to devise panaceas.

"It is not from the lack of any government activity in these directions that the farmer is suffering," Mr. Coolidge declared emphatically. "The troubles of the farmer are on the farm in the market. They come largely from over production. We are searching for remedies."

"The sound remedy is to reduce production and that is a remedy which will automatically apply itself if there is no artificial interference."

Mr. Coolidge declared that the time will come when this country will become an importer of food-stuffs and the question will be under-production rather than over-production. But until that time comes, the farmers for their own good, should produce enough to feed this country and leave a marketable surplus.

The federal government is doing everything within its power to help agriculture attain a secure footing. Mr. Coolidge said pointing out that $5,000,000 has been placed at the disposal of the war finance corporation and the agricultural department during the past three years. CONGRESS SHOWS SIGNS OF BUCKING PRESIDENT

Refuses to Follow His Recommendations by Putting Back $235,000 Appropriation in Bill

AN OMEN OF ITS TEMPER

Washington, Dec. 5.—Congress already shows signs of bucking President Coolidge's economy program to an extent that may wipe out the $57,000,000 surplus expected this year and threaten further tax reductions.

Action by the house in disregarding the president's recommendation for thirty-nine land offices back in the Interior bill, is regarded as an omen of its temper.

Secretary Work and the house appropriation committee recommended that the office be abolished as means of saving money, but the house speedily overrode both.

The senate today continued to plod along with debate on the Muscle Shoals bill. No decisive action is expected until President Coolidge returns tonight and expresses the position of the administration regarding the Underwood compromise plan.

THREE PAY THE DEATH PENALTY FOR MURDER

Frank Harrell and Mortimer King, Youthful Slayers of Major McCleary, Die in "Chair"

State Penitentiary, Columbia, S. C., Dec. 5—Frank Harrell and Mortimer King paid the death penalty today at dawn for the murder of Major Samuel H. McCleary of the United States Army.

Both of the youthful slayers marched calmly to their death in the state's electric chair, their final plea for a commutation of sentence having been denied by Governor McLeod.

Harrell died first, protesting to the last that King was the actual slayer and that the crime was premeditated.

Columbus, Ohio, Dec. 5—Gorged until he could hardly walk with the largest supper ever ordered by a condemned man at Ohio penitentiary James Avant, 41, negro, was executed in the electric chair early today for the murder of Mrs. Elizabeth Smittle in Youngstown last April.

"God have mercy", Avant said as he mounted the platform on which the death chair stands, and sat down with what seemed to the little group of watchers to be a sigh of relief.

Prison officials said "he got away with all the meal between six p. m. and midnight."

SAYS COL. FORBES GOT $30,000

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 5—Col. Charles R. Forbes received $30,000 from John W. Thompson, St. Louis contractor, as a result of a hospitalization contract between the two men, Elias H. Mortimer, star witness for the government in the Forbes-Thompson fraud trial, testified today.

This occurred while Forbes was head of the United States Veteran's bureau, Mortimer said.

The witness also told of Forbes being embarrassed by newspaper inquiries into the letting of the North Hampton, Mass., contract.

The Defunct Pontiac contract Company, subsidiary of the Thompson Black Company of St. Louis, secured the contract.

DETECTIVES LEAVE TO RETURN BOND THIEVES

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 5—Detectives were expected to go to Chicago today armed with papers for the return of Fred Graham and Bert Henderson, colored, wanted for the theft of $100,000 worth of bonds owned by Byron Landblad, of the Central Indiana Coal Co.

The two men were taken into custody by Chicago police yesterday and Indianapolis authorities were immediately notified. Disappearance of the bonds, which were taken from the coal company safe Sunday, was kept secret by authorities while efforts were made to trace the robbers.

The first clew was furnished by a Frankfort man who notified police here that boxes which had apparently come from the office of the coal company were found near Frankfort.

Working on this information, detectives followed the train to Chicago and Graham and Henderson were arrested.

A'Round The World Appeal

A day that's celebrated 'round the world always interests the alert American; anything at all that goes
'round the world appeals to him.Of days that are observed in every land there are not many; Christmas, in fact, comes pretty near to having a monopoly in that line. Armistice Day has, of course, been fairly well internationalized, but it is not universal yet—and indeed is not likely to be.But the International Golden Rule organization at its headquarters, in Geneva, has actually accomplished the feat of inventing a new worldwide commemoration bigger than Armistice Day—because it is going to be observed this year by a great many people who have their own reasons for not caring to remember much about that armistice. The Golden Rule is something pleasanter to think about, and when Geneva proposed in this informal and unofficial way that all nations should observe Golden Rule Sunday on December 7, that idea took even in Germany, and the day will be remembered there as well as in all the countries which a few years ago were ranged against Germany, and in numerous neutral countries besides—especially Holland, Denmark, Norway, Sweden and China.Of course, it took a powerful magnet to draw all these peoples together in one interest. But whenever anybody does want to draw antagonistic and suspicious people into unity, he knows, if he is wise, that the most potent word to speak is a word about little children. And that is what Geneva has used.The nations can't agree on much else. But they can agree that little children whose natural protectors fell victims to the Great War must not be allowed to starve. So the most comprehensive international cooperation that has been achieved so far in the post-war reconstruction of civilization is this unity of benevolence for the sake of assuring another year's food and clothing to the orphans of the Near East—mostly the children who by a miracle of vitality outlived the fearful days when the Armenian nation was being pursued to the death by vengeful Turks.It is the Near East Relief which represents this benevolence in America, and through it every American is invited to get in on something big next Sunday—to have his part by a frugal dinner and an unfrugal contribution in coordinating humanity to help these 40,000 boys and girls who, without a county of their own, belong obviously to the world.

The Knicker Fad

Professor Shaw of New York university warns men to avoid knick-ers or democracy will go to the bowwows.His logic is that a man may wear knickers with propriety on the golf links or while hunting, but that they are taboo any other time; that if a man puts on overalls, he is dressed for labor; if he dons a sack suit, he means business, and if he appears in abbreviated breeches, it is evident
he means to paly or pose.However true this may be, democracy is not in any grave danger of extinction by the knickerbocker fad.

It might seem serious in New York City, where those who play and pose are prominent, but out in the wilds of America outside New York, we have nothing to fear.If a man has plup legs and a nice assortment of stockings of many hues, and enjoys wearing short breeches, let him wear them.
He don't do it long out in the "open spaces."If our ideals of government are not deeply enough grounded to withstand the knicker fad, then we deserve to go back to the age of class distinctions when a man who worked was not regarded a gentleman.FIFTEEN YEARS

Senator Watson

(Newcastle Courier)

Senator James E. Watson has been a member of the United States Senate exactly eight years, and in that really short time has arisen to a place of great prominence and wide influence in a body that is slow and cautious in recognizing and rewarding ability in its members.Of course, Senator Watson was not unknown or unheralded, when he went to the Senate. He had served nearly twenty years in the House, and was one of the leading and effective members of the body.Yet a member of the Senate can not travel on his reputation alone.
He must show the stuff and deliver the goods. That is what Senator Watson has done and is doing, and today he is, as assistant majority leader, chairman of the committee on committees, a member of the finance and the interstate commerce committee, the most powerful and influential member of the United States Senate.Indiana has for years been accustomed to having its Senators active and prominent in national affairs, but there has not been a time in several generations when the state was more ably and effectively represented in the Senate than at the present.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

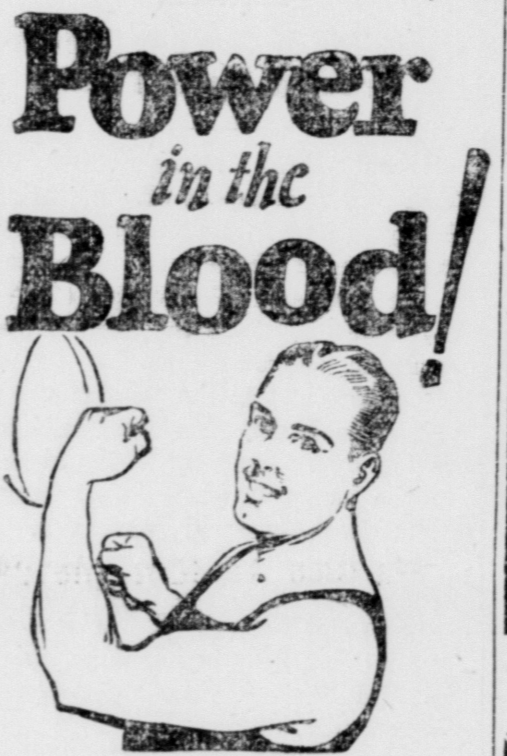

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service WriterWASHINGTON—That rambun-cious Republicans, rejoicing over the party majority in the recent election, may be "feeling their oats" a bit too much is suggested by Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas, himself a Republican who carried Kansas by the largest majority ever given a candidate west of the Mississippi river."The result of the election," says Capper, "was a repudiation of destructive and radical proposals.
But it was not a mandate to sweep liberalism out of the Republican party.""A swelled head is as dangerous in a political party as it is in an individual. It would be deplorable if the Republican party should let its recent victory 'go to its head'."Capper's warning came the day after the Republican caucus had voted to throw La Follette, Ladd, Frazier and Brookhart out of the party and to withhold from them any future committee assignments.And it forecast the probable opposition to such disciplining of other liberals within the party,
such as Norris, Howell, Borah, Couzens, Hiram Johnson and perhaps Harbord.In any showdown on the floor, whether in this Congress or the next, this group, unless conservative Democrats broke over to the support of the old guard Republicans, would be sufficient to override the dictates of the G O P doctrinaires.CAPPER sees, what the old guard in the Senate does not recognize, that the recent election was more of a Coolidge endorsement than a Republican endorsement.He holds that this is particularly true of the result in the west, which clinched the election for the G O P. The west, Capper maintains, did not turn reactionary or even conservative. If it had, he himself would have been defeated."It chose," Capper says, "a course between ultra-radicalismand hard-bolled conservatism. It remains still steadfast in support of reasonable, moderate, sane and safe progressivism."And then he sounds a warning that, at this time, comes as a jarring note on the ears of the cock-sure and jubilant old guard group:"The west," he warns, "can get along without the Republican party, but the Republican party cannot get along without the west."A BACKSTOP for the famous

BIG LEAGUE BOSSES OFF FOR NEW YORK

Failing to Rope Any Prize Stock at Minor League Round-up, Leave For Own Meeting

A BIG CIRCUIT GATHERING

Several Trades Are in the Air. But Nothing Has Materialized—Reds Want 1st Baseman

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Dec. 5.—Packing luggage that failed to rope any prize stock in the minor league round-up at Hartford, the major league ranch bosses jumped into New York today to get warmed up for the annual meetings of the big circuit here next week.

Representatives of the Giants and Yankees returned home, having spent nothing but a lot of time and talk, but their conversations may result in something before the end of another week.

The deal between the Yankees and the St. Louis Browns is still on, the Yankee officials said when they returned. No hint was volunteered concerning the players involved and that the public was allowed to guess that Urban Shocker, Walter Gerber or Hank Severide might be with the Yankees next season and that several of the Yankees with the exception of the Babe, Bob Mense, Joe Dugan or Ward might be given transportation down the river to St. Louis.

Miller Huggins frankly admits that he wants Shocker, who was cast off by the Yankees several years ago but he doesn't want to give up Waite Hoyt, Sam Jones or Herb Pennock.

The Giant delegation was followed into town by Garvy Herrmann and Jack Hendricks, the bright minds of the Cincinnati Reds and they went into session immediately with John McGraw who hasn't lost his sea legs from a stormy trip from Paris on the Leviathan.

Hendricks admitted today that he wanted to talk business with the Giant owners and volunteered the information he was seeking a first baseman.

"I looked all over the minor leagues and couldn't find a player that was worth the money demanded so I'll have to do business with the majors if I do any," Hendricks said.

When Jake Daubert died recently the Reds were left without a reliable first baseman and Hendricks isn't keen to try to win a pennant with Babe Bressler or Fonzca on first base.

The Giants have two fine first basemen in George Kelly and young Bill Terry and if he can get what he wants for one of them, McGraw might let one of them go. If he wants to provide for the future, it is likely he will keep Terry.

McGraw is almost certain to demand Rousch, star Cincinnati outfielder, but the Red bosses insist they will not consider any proposition as Rousch is the big punch of the club and the outfield is now weak enough since Burns and Duncan have gone.

MANY GOOD GAMES ARE ON DECK FOR TONIGHT

Rushville High School is Off to Hagerstown, While Moscow and Webb Will Meet Here

GOOD GAMES IN THE STATE

The Rushville high school basketball teams, the first and second string players, were off this afternoon for Hagerstown, where they will meet the two teams of that place tonight.

Little is known of the players on the Hagerstown team, excepting the record they made last year, and most of the players are back again this year on the team. The Hagerstown team was defeated on their floor recently by Connersville, 24 to 18, and Richmond downed them last Friday night at Richmond by the count of 49 to 35, indicating that Hagerstown has a team that can score if given the chance.

Other games of interest tonight in the county will be between Moscow and Webb, and this game will be played in Rushville on the Modern Appliance floor. Morristown plays at Arlington, and Ging and Bentonville will meet at Raleigh.

Outside of the county, Shelbyville goes to Bloomington, Newcastle to Bedford, and Columbus plays at Greencastle. Richmond will entertain Montmorenci tonight, and on Saturday night the Montmorenci players will be in Connersville.

tion as Rousch is the big punch of the club and the outfield is now weak enough since Burns and Duncan have gone.

The Reds offered the Giants $50,000 early last season for Terry and only aroused a chuckle in McGraw.

The prospect of another fight between Landis and Ban Johnson president of the American League that developed during the scandal before the world's series, is better than ever. Johnson is trying to get the American League meeting away from New York. He tried the same stunt two years ago and his club owners went over his head and forced him to come to New York.

HAGERSTOWN TONIGHT! PASTE UP ANOTHER VICTORY.

Grab a Ford or a bicycle and make the trip to Hagerstown tonight, and help the Lions put across that victory. Every rooter may add a point to the score, so if you are not there, you will know why the score isn't as large as it should be.

WILL USE SMALL FLOOR

Shelbyville plays at Bloomington tonight. According to the Shelbyville newspapers, the game will not be played in the large gym, but in the small gym at the high school building, where the home team can have the advantage of the visiting team on a small floor. Tough luck, Shelby, but don't give up too easily.

WANTED EVERYONE TO KNOW ABOUT IT

The Basketball World, in their issue this week, only mentioned the dedication of the Connersville gym in three large sized items. Sorta rubbin' it in on Newcastle.

Newcastle tonight will be playing at Bedford. They have arranged for the game to be relayed with an electric score board in the gym at Newcastle, in order to get the news. Here's hoping that the news will be good news.

Moscow and Webb will need your help tonight at the Modern Appliance building here, and if you have the night off, drop in and see them work out.

Still no contris today. Hurry, Mail 'em to Hittin' 'em.

The Lion's cubs will tackle the second team at Hagerstown tonight. Eat 'em up, Cubs, you'll be a Lion, by and by.

RECALLS ANCIENT HISTORY

B-B Shot in the Marion Chronicle won't accept the Hunks title, so guess Connersville will have to keep it. Here is what the Marion scribe says about us:

Hittin' 'Em and Missin' 'Em in Rushville Republican comes forth with the following:

"Marion wants a name for their basketball team. Last year Hittin' 'em named Connersville the 'Ik-iks' but they don't like that name, and so if Side Lights of Connersvile wants to get rid of it, he can pass it to Marion."

And then he says this: Big hearted Hittin' 'em, but we can't use your present, ol' top. And, just think, it was Marion who upset your state pennant inspirations a few seasons back, the only time we ever met on the hardwood court.

MONTMORENCI SATURDAY NITE, THEN COMES RALEIGH AND THEN ON DECEMBER 19—THAT "BATTLE OF THE CENTURY"—GET READY NOW TO "TAME THEM LIONS"

—Side Lights, Connersville
Tough schedule Connersville. Don't let 'em injure any player, because we hate alibis.

While Connersville is playing Raleigh next Friday, Rushville will be playing Columbus. We admit the last game is tough.

"Hittin' 'em and Missin' 'em" B. B. column in the Rushville Republican showed up for the first time this season on Monday with two columns of "dope" new head an' everything. Welcome, L. C. H., another station heard from.

—Basketbawls, Washington

THANX AGAIN

"Hittin' 'Em and Missin' 'Em" a snappy basket ball column in the Rushville Republican made its bow to the Rushville fans Monday.

—Speaking of Sports, Washington

Here's Washington and Vincennes at it Again!

Vincennes never knows when it has enough. Next Friday it's Anderson and Friday week Franklin. Maybe Vincennes fans will get to see the Adamsmen lose a game at home yet.

—Washington Herald

How true, but we're not chasing easy marks like Elmore, Lyons, Frichton and Podunk, and boasting how many goals our forwards can throw against those teams.

—Vincennes Sun

This column is short today, because Hittin' 'Em closed shop to reach Hagerstown in time for the two big games tonight.

FALL IN LINE—CAGE HAGERSTOWN.

MOSCOW INDEPENDENTS HAVE BUSY MONTH AHEAD

Many Games Scheduled for December, But Team Still Has Few Open Dates to be Filled

SOME NEW PLAYERS ADDED

The Moscow Independents have a heavy basketball schedule ahead of them for this month, with very few open dates, and an effort is being made to book Fairview and Milroy during the month, in order to complete the schedule.

Moscow now has a complete lineup, including substitutes, which makes the team look formidable. The Gosnell brothers and Tillison will not have all of the scoring to do, as Green, last year with Milroy high school, who lives near Moscow, will take care of one of the forward positions. Reed and Alexander will also be used on the team.

Moscow's schedule for December is as follows: Dec. 10 at Galveston; Dec. 11, at Greensburg, Y. M. C. A. team; Dec. 16 at Mathews; Dec. 17, Ball Brothers at Muncie; Dec. 25, Greensburg tourney; with Moscow high school sometime during holiday vacation, leaving two or three open dates, December 19 and 30 or 31.

"A Corner of Sports" in the Bloomington World Speaks of the Shelbyville outfit as the "Bearcats." First time we ever knew a Bearcat resembled a Camel.

FANNING WITH FARRELL

Will Lose 17 Players
By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Dec. 5.—Any football coach in the country might be pardoned for assuming a sour countenance when he saw seventeen varsity players turn in their uniforms for the last time.

There were seventeen seniors on the Notre Dame squad this year including Stuhldreher, Miller, Corwley and Layden, a combination that competent Eastern critics said was the greatest backfield ever assembled.

Rockne will not wear a gloomy face. He is not only an optimist by nature but he has become more of a cheer spreader by his experience as the director of football at one of the greatest football institutions among the colleges.

If it had not been shown so many times in the past that tears shed for Rockne are tears shed in vain, the mourner's bench might be packed and shipped to South Bend. There might also be the festive boards spread for those of the East and Midwest who would want to have a sign of relief at the termination of the domination of Notre Dame on the college gridiron.

Rockne, however, has known for two years that seventeen of his best players were in 1925 classes and that he would have to break out with a new team. The betting is two to one that he will send a team out again next fall that will be a typical Notre Dame team and that is about as much as can be said for any team.

Rockne started a fad this year by sending his second team on the field in the first quarter and rushing the regulars in when it looked like the second-stringers weren't able to hold their own. The Notre Dame coach is a vague-starter. Although there was no significant strategy in a move to keep the regulars on the bench until they were needed vitally, several Eastern coaches picked up the stunt and tried it in their big games.

With Notre Dame, however, it was not a move designed for deception or a piece of strategy, it was merely a means of getting some good experience for the youngsters on the squad that Rockne was preparing to take the places of his seventeen seniors next fall. It was also a good way to keep his stars from going stale by the hard competition of the stiffest schedule arranged for any team in the country. The wisdom of getting substitutes ready for bigger jobs was shown when Adam Walsh as great a center as ever played football, and Harry Stuhldreher, an All-American quarterback if there ever was one, were hurt and had to be taken out for two big games. In the pinch Rockne reached down in the squad bag and pulled out two substitutes that made the two injured stars hardly missed.

OVERWHELMING VOTE FAVORS COMPROMISE

Provides High School Holding Sectional Basketball Tournaments Shall Receive $200

506 FOR IT AND 62 AGAINST

Anderson, Ind., Dec. 5.—An overwhelming majority in favor of the compromise plan for holding state high school basketball sectional tournaments resulted from the referendum vote conducted by the Indiana High School Athletic Association referendum vote, A. L. Trester, permanent secretary, announced today.

The vote was 506 for the new proposal and 62 against.

Under the plan approved by the referendum, the school holding the tourney will be given $200 of the receipts for expenses, and half of the remainder will be divided equally among the teams participating and the other half will be divided on the basis of the number of season tickets sold by each school.

At the annual meeting of the high school association last fall it was proposed to allow the school holding the tourney only $100 for expenses and to divide the rest of the receipts equally among the teams participating regardless of the number of tickets sold by each.

The proposal met with strenuous objection and the compromise plan was developed and submitted to referendum.

money was used to help deflate agricultural districts.

"Looking to the future, the government must aid generously in developing a national agricultural policy on broadly constructive lines,"
he said. "It will support any sound
program to release the farmer from
the individualistic competitive conditions under which agriculture has been conducted. It must encourage orderly and centralized marketing as a substitute for the haphazard and wasteful distribution methods, of the past. We must help the farmer to reduce his taxes, broaden his foreign market and keep freight rates as low
as possible while keeping the railroads efficient."

Politics cannot cure agricultural ills, the president said. The question is purely economic, he said. He pledged his administration to a sweeping study of the needs of the farmer and the enactment of laws
for their application and observance.
General business and commerce
would derive great benefit from a prosperous agricultural community,
the president declared in intimating
that all business men ought to jump
in and help the farmer.

President and Mrs. Coolidge took keen enjoyment out of the parade of
prize winners at the livestock show.
They were interested in the wonder-ous draft horses, some weighing up to a ton and a half. They gazed with admiration at the prize winning cattle, hogs and sheep and expressed amazement at the success of the breeding methods of the middle-western livestock raisers.

The party left for Washington at 10:45 last night, the start home being delayed an hour beyond the schedule. The Coolidge party went as it came—in regular Pullmans, dispending with a special car.

HEALTH BROKEN, KORETZ PREPARES FOR PRISON

When Swindler Finishes Term of
One to Ten Years, Government
Will be Waiting for Him

$5 LEFT OUT OF $2,000,000

(By United Press)

Chicago, Dec. 5—Broken in health
crushed in spirit and with less than $5 of his $2,000,000 left, Leo Koretz,
fake oil stock swindler, today
prepared to start serving his prison
sentence of from one to ten years.
Sentence was imposed late yesterday by chief Justice Hopkins.

Sentence was one to ten years on
each of three indictments of larceny
in connection with his swindling
activities, the terms to run concu-rently. Physicians indicated that Koretz would not live more than six months, as he is suffering from an advanced case of diabetes, along with other ailments.

Justice Hopkins declared that in view of Koretz's illness, his refusal
to fight extradition from Halifax,
where he was arrested, and his plea
of guilty, the ends of justice would
be well served if the sentences would run concurrently.

Koretz accepted his sentence with little demonstration. He grinned wanly and said he was ready to go.

Koretz will be taken to the Joliet
state prison late today or tomorrow.
State's Attorney Crowe said.

BANKS BOOST SALE OF CHRISTMAS SEALS

sale a larger preventative and curative campaign against the "White Plague" will be made possible in 1925.

"More than twenty million Christmas Seals must be sold in Indiana
this year. In the annual Christmas
Seal campaign, between December 1
and January 1, if Hoosier counties
are to continue to lead the communities of the Mississippi Valley states
in the educational fight to rid our citizenship of the "White Plague",
Senator Holmes said. "The Christmas Seal, sold every year throughout Indiana by self-sacrificing organizations of citizens, is a small thing in itself. Each Seal brings in but one cent, and its buyer uses it
only to add a message of good fellowship and charity to his Christmas greetings of good cheer, but
the aggregate of the millions of seals
being sold throughout America is stamping out tuberculosis from among our citizens. Its results have been, in the past ten years, cutting down the death rate from the disease by more than one-half—right
here in Indiana.

"Reports from our county chairmen throughout the state indicate
that this year's sale will be the most phenomenal of any yet held. If that is true, Indiana counties next year
should see a wholesale development
of fresh air school work. Modern Health Crusade activities, greater
facilities for isolating and treating
the active cases of tuberculosis."

NEW LAMP BURNS 94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up; is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, J. N. Johnson, 609 W. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

Doctor's medicines did not help her and an operation was advised. Her brother, who is a druggist, sent her a bottle of Mavr's Wonderful Remedy and it helped her at once. I cannot praise your medicine enough." CONDITION OF STATE HIGHWAYS

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 5—The state highway commission's traffic bulletin issued today for the week of December 5-12 called attention that this year's contract for paving No. 10 in the vicinity of Hazelton is completed, and traffic can now use the new pavement from Evansville, via Princeton to 2 miles north of Hazelton, end of the contract, by making only two short detours. One is in the town of Patoka and the other a mile south of Patoka. Both are short and in good shape.

John D. Williams, highway department director, pointed out that the short detour on No. 26 southeast of Columbus, occasioned by Bartholomew county paving, has been lifted. This road is used extensively by traffic to Madison and many of the southeast river counties.

Surface conditions, detours, run-arounds, etc., are set forth in the bulletin as follows:

No. 1—Pavement in use from Indianapolis to a point 14 miles north of Kokomo, with a detour at bridge 7 miles north of Kokomo. Closed from Neads' Corner to Peru, detour marked. (Entire road open Dec. 16 between Kokomo and Peru except detour west of Miami at bridge 7 miles north of Kokomo.) South of Indianapolis detour via Dudleytown between Seymour and Crothersville account construction.

No. 2—New pavement open from Lincoln Highway west to Allen county line with detour at bridge out 2 1/2 miles west of Lincoln Highway; also new pavement from Warsaw east 6 miles, thence detour south via Pierceton to old location into Columbia City.

No. 4—One mile of earth road between Dugger and Linton; detour over county road through Dugger in wet weather. Run-around at Busseron Creek, 3 miles east of Sullivan, soft in rainy weather. Detour just west of Seymour account bridge construction, will be opened December 17.

No. 5—Construction from junction of 41 and 5 to West Baden detour over State Roads 41 and 22.

No. 6—Pavement open between New Bethel and Shelbyville with one short detour around bridge construction. Northwest of Indianapolis use pavement to 3.7 miles north of Lebanon, thence on short detour back to pavement. Detour 6 miles north of Lebanon to west through Thorn-ton returning to No. 6 at 3 miles north of Thorn-ton. Advisable to use 44 and 29 or 33 and 32 from Lebanon to Lafayette.

No. 7—Closed for about 5 miles west of Peru (portion overlapping No. 1 being paved) detour marked. (Open Dec. 16.)

FIRE TRUCK BOND ISSUE SOLD TODAY

Awarded to City Trust Company of Indianapolis, Which is Slightly Higher Than Local Bank

STARTED LAST FEBRUARY

Truck Ready For Delivery as Soon as Money is Received—Balance to Extend Water Lines

The city bond issue for $14,400 was sold this morning at a special meeting of the city council, to the City Trust Company of Indianapolis, for a premium of $152.20.

The next bid was that of the Rushville National bank for a premium of $150.50. Two other bids were submitted, with the Meyer-Kiser bank of Indianapolis offering $145.25 bid and the Fletcher American Company offering $135.40.

The City Trust Company was the highest bidder, and nused out the local bank by only $1.70. The transcript of the proceedings will be made up at once and sent to the successful bidder so that the money can be received in a short time.

The successful bidder was also the bank that received the award on the issue a few months ago, when they had the highest bid, but turned it down because of a faulty proceeding. It was then necessary to advertise the bond issue again, and after some delay the proceedings were started again, and it is believed now that the transcript will pass without any difficulty.

The purpose of the bond issue is to make payment on a fire truck that is bought, and which will be delivered as soon as the money has been received. The truck will cost $13,000 and the balance of the bond issue is to make necessary improvements in a water line to the business district.

The bond issue was originally started in February of this year, when an attempt was made to raise $30,000 for the fire equipment, repair of the city building and the water line extension, but the city building repair plan was blocked by remonstrators, and the tax board cut the bond issue to $14,500.

When the $14,500 bond issue failed to sell on account of the proceedings, the matter was taken up with the tax board and the public service commission for a still further approval of the issue, and these bodies issued orders granting the bond issue, and in order to make the period of time come out right, the order was again reduced to $14,400 which was the amount bid on today.

ILLNESS AGGRAVATED BY EATING CANNED FOOD

Mrs. Charlotte Cox's Sudden Death at Anderson Attributed Partly to Canned Tomatoes

IN POOR HEALTH RECENTLY

According to further details received here, Mrs. Charlotte Cox, aged 64 years, who died suddenly Thursday morning at her home in Anderson, had been in poor health for the last few weeks, but had not been compelled to remain in bed. She had undergone an x-ray examination that disclosed the presence of tumors.

The deceased took suddenly ill Thursday morning and when the doctor arrived it was disclosed that she had eaten some canned tomatoes Wednesday night, and the physician expressed the opinion that the vegetables might have poisoned her, aggravating her illness. Mrs. Cox lived only a few hours after the sudden attack.

Mrs. Cox was the widow of the late Lem Cox, who was employed by the Union Traction Company in Anderson for many years. The family lived there for a long period, until fifteen years ago, when they moved to this city where Mr. Cox was employed by the I. & C. Traction Co. About six months ago Mrs. Cox moved from West Third street, this city, to Anderson. She is survived by three children, Otis Cox, of Anderson; Claude Cox, of Chicago; Mrs. Zelma Osborne, of Louisville, Ky., and two brothers Haywood Scott and Miles Scott, Pendleton; and a sister, Mrs. Roy Welsh.

SERMON ALSO BY J. W. TURNER

On Sunday St. Paul's church will celebrate its one hundredth birthday. This will be the special feature at every service during the day. The Centennial sermon in the morning will be delivered by Dr. William Warren Sweet of DePauw University. Dr. Sweet is one of the ablest men in the state or nation for an occasion of this kind. He recently preached the sermon at the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of Vincennes. He had charge of the centennial services at Greencastle and at other places. His father was the honored president of Baker University and was a descendant from John Rolfe and Pocahontas. Dr. Sweet's topic will be "Methodism of the Past."

In the afternoon the very gifted preacher, Dr. J. W. Turner, will deliver the sermon. This service will be held at three o'clock and the members of all the other churches in the city may have the privilege of attending at least one of the centennial services.

In the evening the choir will give a musical program under the direction of Prof. D. S. McIntosh. The old time hymns will be sung and Judge Sparks will deliver the Centennial address.

THE EIGHTH WONDER OF THE WORLD

"SIMON LEGRE" JURORS BARRED BY THE DEFENSE

Attorney For L. M. Hight and Mrs. Sweetin Objects to Men With Drooping Moustaches in Box

COURT RECESS UNTIL MONDAY

(By United Press)
Mount Vernon, Ill., Dec. 5.—"Simon Legree" jurors, those with drooping moustaches, are being barred by the state and defense wrangle over the jurors who will hear the testimony against Lawrence M. Hight and Mrs. Elsie Sweetin, charged with the murder of Wilford Sweetin.

"I won't have any of those Simon Legree type jurors try my client. Those men with the long drooping moustaches will convict every time," R. E. Smith, one of the defense attorneys said.

So far eight jurors have been selected. A night session of the circuit court was held last night in an attempt to complete the list and grant a recess until Monday. Taking of testimony will not be started until then.

Of the eight selected seven are farmers from near Ina, and the other is a mechanic.

Court was recessed until Monday morning after nine jurors had been selected. About 100 veniremen have been examined and indications are that a new jury panel will be called before the jury is completed.

Although both Hight and Mrs. Sweetin appeared nervous after the tedious ordeal of selecting jurors, neither would talk much today. Mrs. Sweetin still speaks of a "divine providence" directing the trial which will aid the jurors in finding an acquittal verdict for her.

CHARGES MAY NOT BE PRESSED

Wabash Students Give Bond and Will Settle for Damage Done

Greencastle, Ind., Dec. 5.—After entering appeals in the Putnam county court on an indictment charging them with malicious trespassing, twenty Wabash college students, today were released on $500 bond each pending trial.

Judge James P. Hughes set the trial date for December 18. In the meantime it is understood that the students will settle with DePauw University officials for the damage done in painting buildings on the DePauw campus on the night before the Wabash-DePauw football game this season.

The charge against the students will probably not be pressed if the settlement is made.

The purchase of $25.00 Health Bonds by two local banks helped swell the total in the Christmas Seal and bond campaign today.

The Rushville National and the American National each took a bond of this size, according to today's report. The Rush County National was included among the purchasers announced Thursday, having invested $25.00 also, in the movement designed to eradicate tuberculosis.

Those who put their money in Christmas Seals and Health Bonds will have an opportunity to see it at work, because a large percent of the proceeds goes to the support of the visiting nurse, and is also used to pay the expenses of clinics for the purpose of discovering tuberculosis in its early stages.

The local tuberculosis association has received a letter from State Senator C. O. Holmes of Gary, president of the Indiana association, in which he emphasizes the constantly decreasing death rate from the disease in Indiana and pointed to the record of organized tuberculosis work in the state for the past dozen years. He said that if citizens of the state responded to the 1924 Seal

City School Board Meets Today, But Finds It Necessary to Wait on Insurance Adjusters

VACANCY IS CONSIDERED

The city school board held their regular session this morning, and expected to make plans for the remodeling of the Washington school for colored children, which was damaged by fire Monday morning, but nothing definite was done.

The school board is waiting on the insurance adjusters to make the settlement, so that they can then know how much money can be spent on the repairs. It was expected that the report would be ready for this morning, but it will be necessary for a special meeting of the school board later to make the remodeling plans.

The session this morning also took up the vacancy made in the high school faculty by the recent resignation of Marietta Sicer, physical education teacher, and also instructor in a class for beginners in French. No one was employed, although it is understood that several applicants are under consideration for the place.

The usual payment of the claims and bills was made.

A complaint on a note, in which Elizabeth Archey is plaintiff and Walter S. Mansfield defendant, was being heard today in the circuit court before Judge Sparks. The case was expected to occupy nearly all day for trial, with the arguments being heard this afternoon.

The plaintiff was seeking judgment for $2,500 on a note, which she alleged to be past due. The parties are residents of Milroy. It was expected that no decision would be entered in the case today.

There are no cases set for trial Saturday, and only a few minor court issues are expected to come up.

A complaint to foreclose a chattel mortgage has been filed in the circuit court by Walter E. Smith against George Solomon.

REFORMATORY SYSTEM OF STATE IS RAPPED

Criticized by Judge Anderson When Former Inmates Appear in Federal Court

POSTAL ROBBERS SENTENCED

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 5.—The state reformatory system was rapped repeatedly by Judge A. B. Anderson in federal court today as young men who had been released from state schools came before him for arraignment on other law violations.

Fifty seven persons indicted at the November session of the federal grand jury were before Anderson for arraignment. Forty one pleaded guilty and twelve not guilty.

"I want to keep track of all these young men who have been 'reformed' over night and who come up here for law violations," Judge Anderson said as Robert Wilson, 19 of Dayton, Ohio, pleaded guilty to robbing the post-office at Underwood.

"I will give you three years and then we will know where you are," Judge Anderson told Wilson.

Eugene Goff, of Clifty, pleaded guilty to robbing the postoffice there and was given two years imprisonment.

Fred Steffler, 22, and Walter Jensen, 22, pleaded guilty to robbing the postoffice at Willow Branch and were given four years each.

COOLIDGE SPEEDING BACK TO HIS DESK

Makes Two Speeches and Inspects Livestock Exposition During 13 Hours in Chicago

CUT PRODUCTION, HIS ADVICE

Most of Ills of Agriculture Come From Over-Production, President Tells Farmers

By DALE VANEVRY

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Enroute With President Coolidge, Garrett, Ind., Dec. 5.—President Coolidge was speeding back to Washington today after a strenuous 13 hours in Chicago during which he made two speeches and inspected the International Livestock Exposition.

It was Mr. Coolidge's first visit to the west since he became president and his first speech to a mid-western audience since he entered the White House.

While both his speeches were devoted largely to agricultural interests, Mr. Coolidge, without mentioning the League of Nations or the World Court urged a world wide co-operation for peace and predicted a wave of prosperity for the coming year.

The president will reach Washington at 8 p. m. today. His route will take him through Akron and Youngstown Ohio, Conneville Pa., and Cumberland, Md.

Chicago, Dec. 5.—Reduce production was the advice President Coolidge gave to farmers in a speech here last night at the International Livestock Exposition.

Most of the ills of agriculture come from over-production, Mr. Coolidge declared, and not from the failure of the government to devise panaceas.

"It is not from the lack of any government activity in these directions that the farmer is suffering," Mr. Coolidge declared emphatically. "The troubles of the farmer are on the farm in the market. They come largely from over production. We are searching for remedies."

"The sound remedy is to reduce production and that is a remedy which will automatically apply itself if there is no artificial interference."

Mr. Coolidge declared that the time will come when this country will become an importer of food-stuffs and the question will be under-production rather than over-production. But until that time comes, the farmers for their own good, should produce enough to feed this country and leave a marketable surplus.

The federal government is doing everything within its power to help agriculture attain a secure footing. Mr. Coolidge said pointing out that $5,000,000 has been placed at the disposal of the war finance corporation and the agricultural department during the past three years. This

CONGRESS SHOWS SIGNS OF BUCKING PRESIDENT

Refuses to Follow His Recommendations by Putting Back $235,000 Appropriation in Bill

AN OMEN OF ITS TEMPER

Washington, Dec. 5.—Congress already shows signs of bucking President Coolidge's economy program to an extent that may wipe out the $57,000,000 surplus expected this year and threaten further tax reductions.

Action by the house in disregarding the president's recommendation for thirty-nine land offices back in the Interior bill, is regarded as an omen of its temper.

Secretary Work and the house appropriation committee recommended that the office be abolished as means of saving money, but the house speedily overrode both.

The senate today continued to plod along with debate on the Muscle Shoals bill. No decisive action is expected until President Coolidge returns tonight and expresses the position of the administration regarding the Underwood compromise plan.

THREE PAY THE DEATH PENALTY FOR MURDER

Frank Harrell and Mortimer King, Youthful Slayers of Major McCleary, Die in "Chair"

State Penitentiary, Columbia, S. C., Dec. 5.—Frank Harrell and Mortimer King paid the death penalty today at dawn for the murder of Major Samuel H. McCleary of the United States Army.

Both of the youthful slayers marched calmly to their death in the state's electric chair, their final plea for a commutation of sentence having been denied by Governor McLeod.

Harrell died first, protesting to the last that King was the actual slayer and that the crime was premeditated.

Columbus, Ohio, Dec. 5.—Gargled until he could hardly walk with the largest snuff ever ordered by a condemned man at Ohio penitentiary James Avant, 41, negro, was executed in the electric chair early today for the murder of Mrs. Elizabeth Smith in Youngstown last April.

"God have mercy," Avant said as he mounted the platform on which the death chair stands, and sat down with what seemed to the little group of watchers to be a sigh of relief. Prison officials said "he got away with all the meal between six p. m. and midnight."

SAYS COL. FORBES GOT $30,000

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 5.—Col. Charles R. Forbes received $30,000 from John W. Thompson, St. Louis contractor, as a result of a hospitalization contract between the two men, Elias H. Mortimer, star witness for the government in the Forbes-Thompson fraud trial, testified today.

This occurred while Forbes was head of the United States Veterans' bureau, Mortimer said.

The witness also told of Forbes being embarrassed by newspaper inquiries into the letting of the North Hampton, Mass., contract.

The Defiant Pontiac contract Company, subsidiary of the Thompson Black Company of St. Louis, secured the contract.

DETECTIVES LEAVE TO RETURN BOND THIEVES

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 5.—Detectives were expected to go to Chicago today armed with papers for the return of Fred Graham and Bert Henderson, colored, wanted for the theft of $100,000 worth of bonds owned by Byron Lundblad, of the Central Indiana Coal Co.

The two men were taken into custody by Chicago police yesterday and Indianapolis authorities were immediately notified.

Disappearance of the bonds, which were taken from the coal company safe Sunday, was kept secret by authorities while efforts were made to trace the robbers.

The first clew was furnished by a Frankfort man who notified police here that boxes which had apparently come from the office of the coal company were found near Frankfort.

Working on this information, detectives followed the train to Chicago and Graham and Henderson were arrested.

A Round The World Appeal

A day that's celebrated "round the world" always interests the alert American; anything at all that goes "round the world" appeals to him.

Of days that are observed in every land there are not many; Christmas, in fact, comes pretty near to having a monopoly in that line. Armistice Day has, of course, been fairly well internationalized, but it is not universal yet—and indeed is not likely to be.

But the International Golden Rule organization at its headquarters, in Geneva, has actually accomplished the feat of inventing a new world-wide commemoration bigger than Armistice Day—because it is going to be observed this year by a great many people who have their own reasons for not caring to remember much about that armistice. The Golden Rule is something pleasanter to think about, and when Geneva proposed in this informal and unofficial way that all nations should observe Golden Rule Sunday on December 7, that idea took even in Germany, and the day will be remembered there as well as in all the countries which a few years ago were ranged against Germany, and in numerous neutral countries besides—especially Holland, Denmark, Norway, Sweden and China.

Of course, it took a powerful magnet to draw all these peoples together in one interest. But whenever anybody does want to draw antagonistic and suspicious people into unity, he knows, if he is wise, that the most potent word to speak is a word about little children. And that is what Geneva has used.

The nations can't agree on much else. But they can agree that little children whose natural protectors fell victims to the Great War must not be allowed to starve. So the most comprehensive international co-operation that has been achieved so far in the post-war reconstruction of civilization is this unity of benevolence for the sake of assuring another year's food and clothing to the orphans of the Near East—mostly the children who by a miracle of vitality outlived the fearful days when the Armenian nation was being massacred to the death by vengeful Turks.

It is the Near East Relief which represents this benevolence in America, and through it every American is invited to get in on something big next Sunday—to have his part by a final dinner and an infrequent contribution in continuing humanity to help these 40,000 boys and girls who, without a country of their own, belong obviously to the world.

The Knicker Fad

Professor Shaw of New York university wants men to avoid knickerbockers or democracy will go to the bew-ows.

His logic is that a man may wear knickerbockers with propriety on the golf links or while hunting, but that they are taboo on other times; that if a man puts on overalls, he is dressed for labor; if he dons a sack suit, he means business, and if he appears in abbreviated breeches, it is evident he means to play or pose.

However true this may be, democracy is not in any grave danger of extinction by the knickerbocker fad. It might seem serious in New York City, where those who play and pose are prominent, but out in the wilds of America outside New York, we have nothing to fear.

If a man has plump legs and a nice assortment of stockings of many hues, and enjoys wearing short breeches, let him wear them. He don't do it long out in the "open spaces."

If our ideals of government are not deeply enough grounded to withstand the knicker fad, then we deserve to go back to the age of class distinctions when a man who worked was not regarded a gentleman.

Current Comment

Senator Watson

(Newcastle Courier)

Senator James E. Watson has been a member of the United States Senate exactly eight years, and in that really short time has arisen to a place of great prominence and wide influence in a body that is slow and cautious in recognizing and rewarding ability in its members.

Of course, Senator Watson was not unknown or unheralded, when he went to the Senate. He had served nearly twenty years in the House, and was one of the leading and effective members of the body.

Yet a member of the Senate can not travel on his reputation alone. He must show the stuff and deliver the goods. That is what Senator Watson has done and is doing, and today he is, as assistant majority leader, chairman of the committee on committees, a member of the finance and the interstate commerce committee, the most powerful and influential member of the United States Senate.

Indiana has for years been accustomed to having its Senators active and prominent in national affairs, but there has not been a time in several generations when the state was more ably and effectively represented in the Senate than at the present.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—That rambunctious Republicans, rejoicing over the party majority in the recent election, may be "feeling their oats" a bit too much is suggested by Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas, himself a Republican who carried Kansas by the largest majority ever given a candidate west of the Mississippi river.

"The result of the election," says Capper, "was a repudiation of destructive and radical proposals. But it was not a mandate to sweep liberalism out of the Republican party."

"A swelled head is as dangerous in a political party as it is in an individual. It would be deplorable if the Republican party should let its recent victory 'go to its head'."

Capper's warning came the day after the Republican caucus had voted to throw La Follette, Ladd, Frazier and Brookhart out of the party and to withhold from them any future committee assignments.

And it forecast the probable opposition to such disciplining of other liberals within the party, such as Norris, Howell, Borah, Couzens, Hiram Johnson and perhaps Harriold.

In any showdown on the floor, whether in this Congress or the next, this group, unless conservative Democrats broke over to the support of the old guard Republicans, would be sufficient to override the dictates of the G. O. P. doctrinaires.

CAPPER sees what the old guard in the Senate does not recognize, that the recent election was more of a Coolidge endorsement than a Republican endorsement.

He holds that this is particularly true of the result in the west, which clinched the election for the G. O. P. The west, Capper maintains, did not turn reactionary or even conservative. If it had, he himself would have been defeated.

"It chose," Capper says, "a course between ultra-radicalism and hard-boiled conservatism. It remains still steadfast in support of reasonable, moderate, sane and safe progressivism."

And then he sounds a warning that, at this time, comes as a far more ominous note on the ears of the cocksure and jubilant old guard group:

"The west," he warns, "can get along without the Republican party, but the Republican party cannot get along without the west."

A BACKSTOP for the famous Coolidge luck is an odd necklace worn of late by Mrs. Coolidge. Pendant from the necklace are seven skillfully carved ivory elephants.

The superstitiously inclined say that more than mere coincidence is behind the fact that she wore the necklace at the final game of the world series, which Washington won, and on election day when Cal's plurality broke all records.

SHORTLY before the illness and operation which caused his death, Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace completed the writing of his memoirs.

Official Washington is wondering just how much of the details of the battle that raged inside the Harding cabinet between Wallace and some of his fellow cabinet members will be disclosed.

One of the bitterest contests in any recent cabinet raged between Wallace and former Secretary of Interior Fall. Fall was fighting for the transfer, to his department, of the nation's immense forest reserves.

Wallace's own story of the inside maneuverings in that battle would be especially illuminating.

Scarcely second in interest to this would be the inside story of the contest between himself and Secretary Hoover over the Bureau of Markets which Hoover wanted to take over.

Wallace's outspoken champion-ship of means and measures not sponsored by his administration fellows provoked many of the warmest cabinet meetings of recent years.

TODAY'S CROSS
WORD PUZZLE

Honest confession is reputed to be good for the soul. Our C. W. P. editor is a living example of this alleged truism. He has to confess today that he has fallen victim to the cross word microbe—that the cross word puzzle complex has got him.

Tomorrow, he is going to run in this column a regular hottest-to-goodness cross word puzzle, checkerboard and all, with the "Horizontal" and "Verticals" thrown in for good measure. After the way he has been ridiculing the cross word puzzle, he dislikes to eat his words, so to speak, because he fears indigestion, but it is no less than many an editor before him has done.

He is going to try the black and white style once a week and fill in with his own (patent applied for) invention, and if his readers show a preference for the checkerboard, why the black and whites have it.

ANSWER TO THURSDAY'S PUZZLE

After a painstaking investigation and a thorough checking-up with all the C. W. P. books available, our C. W. P. editor has concluded that the word turns because there is a detour sign ahead.

Second Look Like Second Thought

Great Britain has changed her mind about recognition of Soviet Russia. It always pays to take a second look.

You will be compelled to admit that the results of S. S. S. are really amazing!

MAN'S GLORY is his strength—yet how few there are who are really as strong as they should be. The blood thins, gets weaker, blood cells wear out—general weakness and a gradual break-down of the system results.

We know there is one thing that puts power in the blood, and that is more red-blood-cells! S.S.S. builds them by the million! We know that as blood cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! But have you ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought of it. So-called skin eruptions—pimples, boils, blackheads, eczema all pack up and go when the tide of blood cells begins to roll in. Blood cells are the fighting giants of Nature. S.S.S. is one of the greatest blood cell builders, blood cleansers and body builders known to us mortals. Here is your opportunity! S.S.S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S.S.S. does build red-blood-cells, it roots rheumatism, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion, builds you up when you are run-down.

Start taking S.S.S. today and get back that power in your blood!

Kellogg's Bran delights father
by bringing health to children

Poor little kids—they needed bran badly. But they wouldn't eat ordinary bran. They didn't like them. Most folks don't. Then their father tried Kellogg's Bran, cooked and "kibbled." What a difference! He tells the story in his letter:

"Dear Sirs: I wish to express my appreciation of your kibbled bran, which I have used for my children this summer. We had a great deal of trouble with them through constipation, and bran had been the most satisfactory remedy but they could not be induced to take the old varieties. I became take the kibbled bran and consider it an essential ingredient of their porridge. No one whose children have not been troubled in this way can appreciate the relief there is in having their bowels move regularly." (The original of this letter is on file at the Kellogg Company, Battle Creek, Mich.)

Constipation is a dangerous disease. It should not be neglected. But do not try half-way measures in seeking relief. Kellogg's Bran is ALL-bran. And it takes ALL-bran to be 100% effective. Kellogg's Bran is guaranteed to bring permanent relief, if eaten regularly, in the most chronic cases. If it fails, your grocer will return your money.

Eat two tablespoons daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Eat it with milk or cream. The flavor is delicious. Sprinkle it on other cereals. Cook it with hot cereals. Try it in the recipes on every package. It will bring you health. Begin eating it today. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by all grocers.

BIG LEAGUE BOSSES OFF FOR NEW YORK

Failing to Rope Any Prize Stock at Minor League Round-up. Leave For Own Meeting

A BIG CIRCUIT GATHERING

Several Trades Are in the Air. But Nothing Has Materialized—Reds Want 1st Baseman

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Dec. 5.—Packing barrels that failed to rope any prize stock in the minor league round-up at Hartford, the major league ranch bosses jumped into New York today to get warmed up for the annual meetings of the big circuit here next week.

Representatives of the Giants and Yankees returned home, having spent nothing but a lot of time and talk, but their conversations may result in something before the end of another week.

The deal between the Yankees and the St. Louis Browns is still on, the Yankee officials said when they returned. No hint was volunteered concerning the players involved and that the public was allowed to guess that Urban Shocker, Walter Gerber or Hank Severid might be with the Yankees next season and that several of the Yankees with the exception of the Babe, Bob Messel, Joe Dugan or Ward might be given transportation down the river to St. Louis.

Miller Huggins frankly admits that he wants Shocker, who was cast off by the Yankees several years ago but he doesn't want to give up Waite Hoyt, Sam Jones or Herb Pennock.

The Giant delegation was followed into town by Garvey Herrmann and Jack Hendricks, the bright minds of the Cincinnati Reds and they went into session immediately with John McGraw who hasn't lost his sea legs from a stormy trip from Paris on the Leviathan.

Hendricks admitted today that he wanted to talk business with the Giant owners and volunteered the information he was seeking a first baseman.

"I looked all over the minor leagues and couldn't find a player that was worth the money demanded so I'll have to do business with the majors if I do any," Hendricks said.

When Jake Daubert died recently the Reds were left without a reliable first baseman and Hendricks isn't keen to try to win a pennant with Duke Bressler or Fonzca on first base.

The Giants have two fine first basemen in George Kelly and young Bill Terry and if he can get what he wants for one of them, McGraw might let one of them go. If he wants to provide for the future, it is likely he will keep Terry.

McGraw is almost certain to demand Rousch, star Cincinnati outfielder, but the Red bosses insist they will not consider any propo-

MANY GOOD GAMES ARE ON DECK FOR TONIGHT

Rushville High School is Off to Hagerstown, While Moscow and Webb Will Meet Here

GOOD GAMES IN THE STATE

The Rushville high school basketball team, the first and second string players, were off this afternoon for Hagerstown, where they will meet the two teams of that place tonight.

Little is known of the players on the Hagerstown team, excepting the record they made last year, and most of the players are back again this year on the team. The Hagerstown team was defeated on their floor recently by Connersville, 24 to 18, and Richmond downed them last Friday night at Richmond by the count of 49 to 35, indicating that Hagerstown has a team that can score if given the chance.

Other games of interest tonight in the county will be between Moscow and Webb, and this game will be played in Rushville on the Modern Appliance floor. Morristown plays at Arlington, and Ging and Bentonville will meet at Raleigh.

Outside of the county, Shelbyville goes to Bloomington, Newcastle to Bedford, and Columbus plays at Greencastle. Richmond will entertain Montmorenci tonight, and on Saturday night the Montmorenci players will be in Connersville.

tion as Roush is the big punch of the club and the outfield is now weak enough since Burns and Duncan have gone.

The Reds offered the Giants $50,000 early last season for Terry and it only aroused a chuckle in McGraw.

The prospect of another fight between Landis and Ban Johnson president of the American League that developed during the scandal before the world's series, is better than ever. Johnson is trying to get the American League meeting away from New York. He tried the same stunt two years ago and his club owners went over his head and forced him to come to New York.

HAGERSTOWN TONIGHT! PASTE UP ANOTHER VICTORY.

Grab a Ford or a bicycle and make the trip to Hagerstown tonight, and help the Lions put across that victory. Every rooter may add a point to the score, so if you are not there, you will know why the score isn't as large as it should be.

WILL USE SMALL FLOOR

Shelbyville plays at Bloomington tonight. According to the Shelbyville newspapers, the game will not be played in the large gym, but in the small gym at the high school building, where the home team can have the advantage of the visiting team on a small floor. Tough luck, Shelby, but don't give up too easily.

WANTED EVERYONE TO KNOW ABOUT IT

The Basketball World, in their issue this week, only mentioned the dedication of the Connersville gym in three large sized items. Sorta rubbin' it in on Newcastle.

Newcastle tonight will be playing at Bedford. They have arranged for the game to be relayed with an electric score board in the gym at Newcastle, in order to get the news. Here's hoping that the news will be good news.

Moscow and Webb will need your help tonight at the Modern Appliance building here, and if you have the night off, drop in and see them work out.

Still no contris today. Hurry. Mail 'em to Hittin' 'em.

The Lion's cubs will tackle the second team at Hagerstown tonight. Eat 'em up, Cubs, you'll be a Lion, by and by.

RECALLS ANCIENT HISTORY

B-B Shot in the Marion Chronicle won't accept the Hank title, so guess Connersville will have to keep it. Here is what the Marion scribe says about us:

"Hittin' 'Em and Missin' 'Em" in Rushville Republican comes forth with the following:

"Marion wants a name for their basketball team. Last year 'Hittin' 'em and Missin' 'Em' the 'Tanks' but they don't like that name, and so if Side Lights of Connersville wants to get rid of it, he can pass it to Marion."

And then he says this: Big hearted Hittin' 'em, but we can't use your present, ol' top. And, just think, it was Marion who upset your state pennant inspirations a few seasons back, the only time we ever met on the hardwood court.

MONTMORENCI SATURDAY NITE, THEN COMES RALEIGH AND THEN ON DECEMBER 19—THAT "BATTLE OF THE CENTURY"—GET READY NOW TO "TAME THEM LIONS!" —Side Lights, Connersville

Tough schedule Connersville. Don't let 'em injure any player, because we hate alibis.

While Connersville is playing Raleigh next Friday, Rushville will be playing Columbus. We admit the last game is tough.

THANK

"Hittin' 'em and Missin' 'em" B. B. column in the Rushville Republican showed up for the first time this season on Monday with two columns of 'loose' new head an' everything. Welcome, L. C. H., another station heard from.

Vincennes never knows when it has enough. Next Friday it's Anderson and Friday week Franklin. Maybe Vincennes fans will get to see the Adamsmen lose a game at home yet.

How true, but we're not chasing easy marks like Elnora, Lyons, Friction and Podunk, and boasting how many goals our forwards can throw against those teams.

—Vincennes Sun

This column is short today, because Hittin' 'Em closed shop to reach Hagerstown in time for the two big games tonight.

MOSCOW INDEPENDENTS HAVE BUSY MONTH AHEAD

Many Games Scheduled for December, But Team Still Has Few Open Dates to be Filled

SOME NEW PLAYERS ADDED

The Moscow Independents have a heavy basketball schedule ahead of them for this month, with very few open dates, and an effort is being made to book Fairview and Milroy during the month, in order to complete the schedule.

Moscow now has a complete lineup, including substitutes, which makes the team look formidable. The Gosnell brothers and Tillison will not have all of the scoring to do, as Green, last year with Milroy high school, who lives near Moscow, will take care of one of the forward positions. Reed and Alexander will also be used on the team.

Moscow's schedule for December is as follows: Dec. 10 at Galveston; Dec. 11, at Greensburg, Y. M. C. A. team; Dec. 16 at Mathews; Dec. 17, Ball Brothers at Muncie; Dec. 25, Yorktown, two games; Dec. 27, Greensburg tourney; with Moscow high school sometime during holiday vacation, leaving two or three open dates, December 19 and 30 or 31.

"A Corner of Sports" in the Bloomington World Speaks of the Shelbyville outfit as the "Bearcats." First time we ever knew a Bearcat resembled a Camel.

FANNING WITH FARRELL

Will Lose 17 Players

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Dec. 5.—Any football coach in the country might be pardoned for assuming a sour countenance when he saw seventeen varsity players turn in their uniforms for the last time.

There were seventeen seniors on the Notre Dame squad this year including Stuhldreher, Miller, Corwley and Layden, a combination that competent Eastern critics said was the greatest backfield ever assembled.

Rockne will not wear a gloomy face. He is not only an optimist by nature but he has become more of a cheer spreader by his experience as the director of football at one of the greatest football institutions among the colleges.

If it had not been shown so many times in the past that tears shed for Rockne are tears wept in vain, the mourner's bench might be packed and shipped to South Bend. There might also be the festive boards spread for those of the East and Midwest who would want to have a sight of relief at the termination of the domination of Notre Dame on the college gridiron.

Rockne, however, has known for two years that seventeen of his best players were in 1925 classes and that he would have to break out with a new team. The betting is two to one that he will send a team out again next fall that will be a typical Notre Dame team and that is about as much as can be said for any team.

Rockne started a fad this year by sending his second team on the field in the first quarter and rushing the regulars in when it looked like the second-stringers weren't able to hold their own. The Notre Dame coach is a vogue-starter. Although there was no significant strategy in a move to keep the regulars on the bench until they were needed vitally, several Eastern coaches picked up the stunt and tried it in their big games.

With Notre Dame, however, it was not a move designed for deception or a piece of strategy, it was merely a means of getting some good experience for the youngsters on the squad that Rockne was preparing to take the places of his seventeen seniors next fall. It was also a good way to keep his stars from going stale by the hard competition of the stiffest schedule arranged for any team in the country. The wisdom of getting substitutes ready for bigger jobs was shown when Adam Walsh as great a center as ever played football, and Harry Stuhldreher, an All-American quarterback if there ever was one, were hurt and had to be taken out for two big games. In the pinch Rockne reached down in the squad and pulled out two substitutes that made the two injured stars hardly missed.

OVERWHELMING VOTE FAVORS COMPROMISE

Provides High School Holding Sectional Basketball Tournaments Shall Receive $200

506 FOR IT AND 62 AGAINST

Anderson, Ind., Dec. 5.—An overwhelming majority in favor of the compromise plan for holding state high school basketball sectional tournaments resulted from the referendum vote conducted by the Indiana High School Athletic Association referendum vote, A. L. Trester, permanent secretary, announced today.

The vote was 506 for the new proposal and 62 against.

Under the plan approved by the referendum, the school holding the tournament will be given $200 of the receipts for expenses, and half of the remainder will be divided equally among the teams participating and the other half will be divided on the basis of the number of season tickets sold by each school.

At the annual meeting of the high school association last fall it was proposed to allow the school holding the tournament only $100 for expenses and to divide the rest of the receipts equally among the teams participating regardless of the number of tickets sold by each.

The proposal met with strenuous objection and the compromise plan was developed and submitted to referendum.

money was used to help deflate agricultural districts.

"Looking to the future, the government must aid generously in developing a national agricultural policy on broadly constructive lines,"
he said. "It will support any sound
program to release the farmer from
the individualistic competitive conditions under which agriculture has been conducted. It must encourage orderly and centralized marketing as
a substitute for the haphazard and
wasteful distribution methods, of the past. We must help the farmer to reduce his taxes, broaden his foreign
market and keep freight rates as low
as possible while keeping the railroads efficient."

Politics cannot cure agricultural ills, the president said. The question is purely economic, he said. He pledged his administration to a searching study of the needs of the farmer and the enactment of laws
for their application and observance.
General business and commerce
would derive great benefit from a
prosperous agricultural community,
the president declared in intimating
that all business men ought to jump
in and help the farmer.

President and Mrs. Coolidge took keen enjoyment out of the parade of
prize winners at the livestock show.
They were interested in the wonder-

pressed amazement at the success
the breeding methods of the middle-

HEALTH BROKEN, KORETZ PREPARES FOR PRISON

When Swindler Finishes Term of
One to Ten Years, Government
Will be Waiting for Him

$5 LEFT OUT OF $2,000,000

(By United Press)

Chicago, Dec. 5—Broken in health
crushed in spirit and with less than $5 of his $2,000,000 left, Leo Koretz,
fake oil stock swindler, today
prepared to start serving his prison
sentence of from one to ten years.
Sentence was imposed late yesterday by chief Justice Hopkins.

Sentence was one to ten years on
each of three indictments of larceny
in connection with his swindling
activities, the terms to run concu-rently. Physicians indicated that Koretz would not live more than six months, as he is suffering from an
advanced case of diabetes, along
with other ailments.

Justice Hopkins declared that in view of Koretz's illness, his refusal
to fight extradition from Halifax,
where he was arrested, and his plea
of guilty, the ends of justice would
be well served if the sentences would
run concurrently.

Koretz accepted his sentence with little demonstration. He grinned warily and said he was ready to go.

Koretz will be taken to the Joliet
state prison late today or tomorrow.
State's Attorney Crowe said.

sale a larger preventative and curative campaign against the "White Plague" will be made possible in 1925.

"More than twenty million Christmas Seals must be sold in Indiana
this year. In the annual Christmas
Seal campaign, between December 1
and January 1, if Hoosier counties
are to continue to lead the communities of the Mississippi Valley states
in the educational fight to rid our
citizenship of the 'White Plague',
Senator Holmes said. "The Christmas Seal, sold every year throughout Indiana by self-sacrificing organizations of citizens, is a small
thing in itself. Each Seal brings in
but one cent, and its buyer uses it
only to add a message of good fellowship and charity to his Christmas greetings of good cheer, but
the aggregate of the millions of seals
being sold throughout America is stamping out tuberculosis from
among our citizens. Its results have been, in the past ten years, cutting
down the death rate from the disease by more than one-half—right
here in Indiana.

"Reports from our county chairmen throughout the state indicate
that this year's sale will be the most phenomenal of any yet held. If that is true, Indiana counties next year
should see a wholesale development
of fresh air school work. Modern Health Crusade activities, greater
facilities for isolating and treating
the active cases of tuberculosis."

Doctor's medicines did not help her and an operation was advised. Her brother, who is a druggist, sent her a bottle of Mav's Wonderful Remedy and it helped her at once. CONDITION OF STATE HIGHWAYS

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 5—The state highway commission's traffic bulletin issued today for the week of December 5-12 called attention that this year's contract for paving No. 10 in the vicinity of Hazelton is completed, and traffic can now use the new pavement from Evansville, via Princeton to 2 miles north of Hazelton, end of the contract, by making only two short detours. One is in the town of Patoka and the other a mile south of Patoka. Both are short and in good shape.

John D. Williams, highway department director, pointed out that the short detour on No. 26 southeast of Columbus, occasioned by Bartholomew county paving, has been lifted. This road is used extensively by traffic to Madison and many of the southeast river counties.

Surface conditions, detours, run-arounds, etc. are set forth in the bulletin as follows:

No. 1—Pavement in use from Indianapolis to a point 14 miles north of Kokomo, with a detour at bridge 7 miles north of Kokomo. Closed from Neads' Corner to Peru, detour marked. (Entire road open Dec. 18 between Kokomo and Peru except detour west of Miami at bridge 7 miles north of Kokomo.) South of Indianapolis detour via Dudleytown between Seymour and Crothersville account construction.

No. 2—New pavement open from Lincoln Highway west to Allen county line with detour at bridge out 2 1/2 miles west of Lincoln Highway; also new pavement from Warsaw east 6 miles, thence detour south via Pierceton to old location into Columbia City.

No. 4—One mile of earth road between Dugger and Linton; detour over county road through Dugger in wet weather. Run-around at Bussers Creek, 3 miles east of Sullivan, soft in rainy weather. Detour just west of Seymour account bridge construction, will be opened December 17.

No. 5—Construction from junction of 41 and 5 to West Baden detour over State Roads 41 and 22.

No. 6—Pavement open between New Bethel and Shelbyville with one short detour around bridge construction. Northwest of Indianapolis use pavement to 3.7 miles north of Lebanon, thence on short detour back to pavement. Detour 6 miles north of Lebanon to west through Throntown returning to No. 6 at 3 miles north of Throntown. Advisable to use 44 and 29 or 33 and 32 from Lebanon to Lafayette.

No. 7—Closed for about 5 miles west of Peru (portion overlapping No. 1 being paved) detour marked. (Open Dec. 16.)

No. 10—New pavement now open from Evansville to 2 miles north of Hazelton excepting one short detour south of Patoka and one in town of Patoka. Closed 4 miles north of Veedersburg account paving; detour to east returning to No. 10 at 7 miles south of Attica. Bridge out 1 mile north of Marshall; detour is fair. Detour west at Attica through Williamsport account construction of Wabash railroad overhead. Detour at 1 mile north of Carbondale account bridge construction.

No. 11—Roadside run-around at bridge out at 1 mile north of Road 17, and at 2 miles south of Albion.

No. 2—Drive slow because of grading new fill at Fish Creek 4 miles south of Freedom.

No. 13—Detour around bridge construction just south of Bluffton. Roadside run-around at bridge projects between Ossian and Bluffton.

No. 14—Earth road from Leopold Junction to St. Croix is soft in wet weather.

No. 16—Use new pavement from Little Pigeon Creek to Gentryville. Detour over earth road at overhead railroad crossing project at Lincoln City. (New location not passable between Lincoln City and a point 4 miles west of St. Meinrad. Traffic between St. Meinrad and Dale use county gravel road. Construction between St. Meinrad and Leavenworth. (Avoid) Watch for blasting at wash-out 3 miles west of New Albany.

No. 17—Two run-arounds between Ligonier and Kendallville, and one 1/2 mile east of Waterloo account bridge construction.

No. 19—Detour around bridge construction 2 miles west of Tipton.

No. 22—Pavement between Indianapolis and Martinsville being used by traffic using three detours around bridge construction. South detour, north of Waverly, very narrow, rough and dangerous. Through traffic advised to use No. 12 between Indianapolis and Martinsville. Between Paoli and English is 17 miles of dirt road which is soft in wet weather. Avoid road south of Grantsburg account of construction. Run-around at bridge project south of Harrodsburg.

No. 24—New grade completed between Palmyra and Salem. Go via Fredericksburg or Martinsburg in wet weather. (New Albany and Louisville traffic go via Pekin and Martinsburg coming out on Road 5 at Greenville in wet weather.)

No. 25—New pavement open from Lagrange to within 1 mile of Goshen—Middlebury road. One-half mile detour marked to south. Run-around at bridge construction 8 miles east of Angola.

No. 39—Bridge run-around at foot of Bulltown Hill near Laurel.

No. 40—Bridge building between Madison and Brooksburg. Fresh gravel between Septsburg and Blocher. (Avoid) Five miles court stone between Ireland and Cato.

No. 41—Traffic use new grade over Willow Valley hill except in wet weather, then use the old road.

No. 47—Traffic use old gravel road between Troy and Macksville, thence west on new gravel road.

Note: Roads not mentioned and parts of roads mentioned but not specified are in excellent conditions.
